VOTE TO THROW OUT CLARK DELEGATES

Wilson Wins Great Victory, Receiving Within 92 Votes of Necessary Two Thirds to Nominate Him.

COMPROMISE DEAL HINT; GAYNOR A POSSIBILITY

Wilson May Finally Be Acceptable to the "Combine"; Anything to Keep Nomination From the "Peerless Statesman."

BY MARTIN GREEN.

BALTIMORE, June 27.-It looks like Wilson, may be on the first ballot. On a roll call late this afternoon Murphy and the ninety New York delegates, Sullivan and the fifty-eight Illinois delegates and Tom Ryan voted to seat the New Jersey Governor's ten delegates from South

The majority report of the Credentials Committee favored ousting the Wilson men and seating Clark men in their places. The Wilson delegates won. The vote was:

New Jersey .... 24

It appears that a combination has been made by various elements in he convention, of which Murphy and Sullivan of Illinois are the most onspicuous examples, a combination having for its object the defeat of William J. Bryan at any cost. The old line bosses assert that Bryan unier the mask of working for Wilson has been forwarding his own candidacy. His growing strength has brought about alliances that will not be revealed in full until the roll call on candidates is reached. At any rate Champ Clark seems to have been deserted by his new found conservative allies, Thomas F. Ryan and August Belmont. Gaynor is a possi-

It was reported that an interesting conference was held last night between Roger Sullivan and the Tammany chieftain, at which the former endeavored to convince the New York leader that the rank and file of the party stand for a progressive candidate. Sullivan said in real support of his statement that a deluge of telegrams had poured in on dele-
